

“The Mighty One, God, the LORD, has spoken,
And summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shone forth.”

“On an appointed day Herod [Herod Agrippa I - 44 AD], having put on his royal apparel, took his seat on the rostrum and began delivering an address to them. The people kept crying out, ‘The voice of a god and not of a man!’ And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

“But the word of the Lord continued to grow and to be multiplied.”

Feb. 16 - Fasting and prayer for evangelism

Quotation of the week:

“Words fail us when we try to describe the agonies of our Lord. What words could adequately describe His blood-sweat prayer in Gethsemane, His betrayal by Judas, His sense of being left alone at the scattering of the apostles, or the anguish of His soul in the separation and blackness of the cross. But He underwent serious attitude adjustment, and His voice calls us to overcome as He overcame.”

The Four Horsemen of Revelation

“The four horsemen of the Apocalypse” is a theme referred to often in literature as well as in those screeds claiming to have the latest information on “the end times.” Hundreds of pieces have been written on this, generally using the horsemen of Revelation 6:1-8 to identify events considered near the end of time or near the end of the current era which might be called “the church age.” We are looking at the horsemen and the following points of the vision from the perspective of forces at work during the church age, culminating in Judgment.

- The white horse – The thunderous voice commanded John, “Come!” Of course, John obeyed, noting when the Lamb broke the first seal, “And I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer” (Revelation 6:2). This strongly points to a picture of Christ conquering with the gospel (those who would have this as a picture of “the antichrist” have a flawed perspective of the church, the kingdom, and the millennium). The gospel of Christ contained in the holy scriptures is a powerful force in the world, even though Satan and his minions do everything they can to discount it and confuse it. Those who craft policy at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, for example, are conscious of the word of God, using twisted versions of “the beatitudes” and the “Ten Commandments” for their own benefit. People of all cultures are aware of Jesus, perhaps thinking that He is a “great guru” or that He was a prophet that was taken alive like Elijah of old. The word of God and the gospel of Christ impact those who push the false ideology of evolutionism, and they are conscious of the Biblical accounts of Creation and the Flood of Noah’s day. Furthermore, the gospel of God and the word of truth will reach every truth-seeker on this planet before God decides to end it all. The horseman on the white horse “went out conquering and to conquer.” As Isaiah had prophesied, “So shall My word be which goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me empty without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it” (Isaiah 55:11).

- The red horse – The moment has arrived in John’s vision for the breaking of the second seal on the book. “And when He broke the second seal,” the apostle records, in what seems to be breathless anticipation, “I heard the second living creature saying, ‘Come.’” (Revelation 6:3). The “living creatures” in succession are bringing John to closely view the action. “And another, a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth, and that men should slay one another; and a great sword was given to him” (Revelation 6:4). This also strongly suggests that war another force that is constantly at work among the tribes and tongues of earth’s peoples. Whether it is large scale, such as the Babylonians’ taking Judah and Egypt, or smaller scale such as a war party’s capturing women and horses from another tribe, mankind is always at war. Even the United Nations, billed as a “peacekeeping” organization, actually is the fulfillment of George Orwell’s dystopian statement “WAR IS PEACE.” As also has been stated, it is “perpetual war for perpetual peace”; meaning that it will be war to subjugate the nations of the world under the tyranny of the big financiers’-driven “new world order,” and further wars to keep them subjugated. In the vision, it indeed was granted to him who sat on the red horse “to take peace from the earth.” That is how it has been, that is how it is, and that is how it will be, so long as earth exists. It was also given to him that men “should slay one another.” The red horseman rides, and will ride until Jesus comes again.

We have covered two of the horsemen; two more must go forth!

The force of the gospel and the impact of war are at work.
