Quotation of the week:

But supernatural facts require supernatural confirmations. Hence when the confirmation of the gospel is spoken of in the apostolic writings, it is resolved into the doings or works of the Holy Spirit. "Demonstrations of the Holy Spirit" are the confirmatory proofs of the gospel. When Paul delivered the testimony of God, or the testimony concerning Jesus, to the Corinthians, he says, "It was confirmed among them." And if we examine into the confirmation of the testimony as Paul explained it, we shall find that he makes the spiritual gifts...an assurance or confirmation of what he promulged. -- Alexander Campbell, 1830 Millennial Harbinger, "Confirmation of the Testimony"

Reasonings from Revelation

The Severity of the Wrong Choice

Sometimes in life a person has a second chance; most times he doesn't. There are times when a person could wish that he could go back and make a different decision, or that he could go back and redo a fifteen-minute segment of his life. But the second hand moves on the watch, never to come back again; the lifeblood is spilt on the sand, never to be recovered. Those life lessons are there, designed by the caring Father Himself, to prep man's mind for the hard-core fact that once earthly life is over, there is no coming back for a second opportunity. It is true: "it is appointed for men to die once and after this comes judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). The message is clear: Get it right with God, on His terms, and keep it right! The book of Revelation paints an awesome picture of the rewards for those who get it right, and of the awesome judgment on those who get it wrong.

- The third angel – There has been a lot of action in "midheaven," where John sees these angels flying. "And another angel, a third one, followed them" (Revelation 14:9). This is a scenario designed to be punched into the mind of those who read this letter from the apostle; an angel swoops by with a message to fear God, then another follows the same flight plan with the message that Babylon has fallen, and this third angel comes into view with a message in a loud voice! "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or upon his hand," is the warning, "he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is mixed in full strength in the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb" (Revelation 14:9,10). As was pointed out earlier, a person is either sealed with the seal of God, or he has the mark of the beast, neither of which is visible in the physical realm. Those with the mark of the beast will be tormented, significantly, in the presence of the angels as well as in the presence of the Jesus. The Lord Christ, who died for the lost, will preside over the punishment of those who rejected His efforts to rescue them from the clutches of Satan.
- The "smoke of their torment" – How long does this suffering from rejecting the message of Christ last? "And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name" (Revelation 14:11). This needs to be processed carefully, and the starkness of the outcome of the ultimate wrong decision must be impressed on each saint's mind. This punishment is eternal, and "there is no rest." Stop, and think about this...

*The sinner will be "tormented with fire and brimstone
in the presence of the holy angels"*

In the giving of the Ten Commandments, in warning against idol worship, the great Creator and Redeemer stated, "I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God" (Exodus 20:5). He is right in exercising His jealousy, for He has created everything, and has redeemed those who will turn away from idols and in earnestness of heart serve Him alone; He is right in protecting the integrity of His name. Those, then, who by intent or neglect choose to serve the dragon and his underlings are guilty of idolatry and have willfully chosen the place of eternal torment.

The book of Revelation has repeated warnings along this line. Whether it is the depiction of people crying for the rocks and the mountains to fall on them rather than face the wrath of the Lamb, or whether it is the "lake of fire" toward the close of this book, the message is for people to heed the pleadings of God. "Do I have any pleasure in the death of the wicked," declares the Lord GOD, 'rather than that he should turn from his ways and live?' (Ezekiel 18:23).
