

“Then a shoot will spring from the stem of Jesse,
And a branch from his roots will bear fruit.
The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him...
The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.”

“Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it over with a container, or puts it under a bed;
but he puts it on a lampstand,
so that those who come in may see the light.”

Is such the fast that I choose,
a day to humble oneself?
Is it to bow down the head
like a bulrush and to lie
in sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast,
a day acceptable to the LORD?

ISAIAH 58:5, NRSV

Quotation of the week:

“Cain’s transgression drove him still farther from the presence of the Lord. Not one of his posterity is distinguished for piety, and the whole of his race perished in the Deluge. The virtuous and devout part of the race sprang from him who filled the place of Abel in the affection of his parents and the favor of God. The children of Cain were the children of men, and were skilled in the arts of men; but the sons of God were amongst the children of Seth, and the intermarriages of these with the daughters of men, consummated the apostacy of the old world; and so filled the earth with violence that their crimes reached unto heaven and brought down ruin upon a whole generation.” -- Alexander Campbell, Millennial Harbinger, March 1, 1830, History of Sin
