“Grace to you and peace, from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood— and He has made us to be a kingdom, priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. ”

The LORD your God is in your midst,
A victorious warrior.
He will rejoice over you with joy,
He will be quiet in His love,
He will rejoice over you
with shouts of joy.

Zephaniah 3:17, NASB

Quotation of the week:

“Having thus [with veiled face] delivered these ‘living oracles,’ Moses would once again cover his face with the veil. This shining face was the glory with which the Law was explicated to Israel. ‘But if the ministry of death, in letters engraved on stones,’ comments the apostle, ‘came with glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading as it was, how shall the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory?’ (2 Corinthians 3:7-8). The new covenant, ‘written by the Spirit of the living God on tablets of human hearts,’ is far superior that which was written on lifeless stone; hence it comes with much greater glory than that which shone in Moses’ face.” -- Comfort/Encouragement from 2 Corinthians, “Letter Kills–Spirit Gives Life”

Reasonings from Revelation

The City of Light

“Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb” (Revelation 19:9). Blessed indeed! They constitute the New Jerusalem, the “city four-square” and the dwelling place of God and the Lamb. Watered by the river of the water of life (the presence of the Holy Spirit), and “eating” from the tree of life, they are alive, complete in spirit and soul and the new glorious eternal body.

- The “curse” is gone – As a result of Adam’s sin, God stated, “Cursed is the ground because of you” (Genesis 3:17). The thorns and the thistles popped up out of the ground, and since then man has had to hack the jungle back every day just to stay even, much less get ahead. Things break, the second law of thermodynamics (that says everything is headed toward decay) came into effect, and life is a major challenge. Thus there is a tremendous hope laid out for those who want to be a part of New Jerusalem. “And there shall no longer be any curse” (Revelation 22:3). For those who have never known any landscape but the cursed one, the spiritual land where there is no curse is nearly unimaginable, but clearly desirable.
- In the presence of God – The river of the water of life is described as “flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb” (Revelation 22:1). The throne itself is described as “in it,” meaning inside the city (Revelation 22:3). The portrayal thus is that God and the Lamb are seated on the throne, the river of the water of life is flowing from the throne, and the saints are in His presence. “...and His bond-servants shall serve Him; and they shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads” (Revelation 22:3,4). All through man’s material existence on earth, he could not see the face of God; in glory the saints get to see His face, and rejoice in that they are clearly marked as His children. “Beloved, now we are children of God,” stated the apostle John in his first epistle, “and it has not appeared as yet what we shall be. We know that, when He appears, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him just as He is” (1 John 3:2).
- The true “illuminati” – It is a simple but all-encompassing truth that “God is light” (1 John 1:5). He did not need the sun to light things up in the early stages of Creation, waiting until day four to bring forth the sun, the moon, and the stars. In eternity, He does not need a sun; of New Jerusalem John says that “the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the Lamb” (Revelation 21:23). The point is re-emphasized in the following chapter, “And there shall no longer be any night; and they shall not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God shall illumine them; and they shall reign forever and ever” (Revelation 22:5). Those are the “true illuminati.”

“These words are faithful and true...”

The selected angel of the seven who had the bowls of wrath is the one delivering this section of Revelation to John. “And he said to me,” the apostle notes, ““These words are faithful and true...”” (Revelation 22:6). These pictures of the eternal city, the saints’ seeing the face of God, and saints’ being illumined are encouraging rewards to be kept in the forefronts of the Christians’ minds as they fight their way through the persecutions and challenges to their faith. “... and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show to His bond-servants the things which must shortly take place” (Revelation 22:6).

The Lord Jesus won the decisive victory when He destroyed him who had the power of death [the devil] in His resurrection / ascension. But the battle for the minds of men continues, and this is where the saint must, in the encouragement these visions give, engage the enemy and win souls!
